

Moments in Nature: Emma Auriemma-McKay

Reno City Hall - Metro Gallery

March 30 – May 8, 2015

Reception: April 2 and May 7, 5:00-7:00 pm

Metro Gallery in City Hall hosts new landscape painting by Emma Auriemma-McKay. Moments in Nature showcases the majesty and grandeur of the Sierra Nevada under the kaleidoscopic skies of western Nevada. The vast physical beauty of the basin and range landscapes coupled with the broad and extensive sky has been the spark of inspiration for this body of work.

"Landscapes can reflect a wide spectrum of postures, expressions and emotions. Ever-changing combinations of seasons, light quality or time of day brings constant change, life and personality to a scene. My goal is to capture those "Moments in Nature" that are inspiring." – Emma Auriemma-McKay

Enjoying a professional career as an architect, Emma received a Bachelor of Fine Arts and Architecture from Rhode Island School of Design. Emma is a licensed architect, certified interior designer and is LEED accredited. She has practiced with noted firms in New York, London and Los Angeles and presently has her own practice. In 2014 Emma received Second Place in the Latimer Miniature Works Exhibit. She was awarded Third Place Best of Show in the Cason Valley Art Association's Scholarship Sale and Exhibit in 2013 and also received a Professional Development Grant from the Nevada Arts Council in 2013. Emma's works are currently shown at the Markleeville Art Gallery, Markleeville, CA; St. Mary's Art Center, Virginia City, NV, and Capitol Art Works, Sacramento, CA.
